"Before I Go" is a lovely, sad but ultimately uplifting love story. Daisy is given the devastating news at age 27 that the cancer she beat into remission nearly 4 years ago is back. Even though when reading the synopsis you have a heads-up that this book has a sad ending it seemed to hit harder than I thought it would.

A great read by a wonderful author Catherine Cookson, Before I Go is her autobiography and I thoroughly enjoyed every page. Her early working life was hard for her and the people she befriended, some took advantage of her kindness. She had a very happy marriage and found a very good companion in Tom her husband, I would recommend this compelling autobiography of Catherine Cookson
