If you would test the soul of a friend, take him into the wilderness and rub elbows with him for five months. Either you will hate each other forever afterwards, or emerge with contempt tinged with a pitying toleration -- or you will be close, unquestioning friends to the end of your days.

Cabin Fever by B. M. Bower

"Cabin Fever" is a 1918 novel by B. M. Bower. A classic example of Western adventure fiction, "Cabin Fever" constitutes a must-read for all lovers of the genre and is not to be missed by fans of Bower's work. Bertha Muzzy Sinclair or Sinclair-Cowan (1871 - 1940), more commonly known as B. M. Bower, was an American author famous for her novels, short stories, and screenplays set in the American Old West. Other notable works by this author include: "Casey Ryan", (1921), "Chip of the Flying U" (1906), and "Cow Country" (1921). Contents include: "B. M. Bower", "The History of Western Fiction", "The Fever Manifests Itself", "Two Make a Quarrel", etc. Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive. We are republishing this volume now in an affordable, modern, high-quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new introduction and biography of the author.

This is volume N 6: of B.M.Bower in existence, 4 novels including many adventures of the Flying U Ranch-, nicely arranged in strict chronological order to appreciate the evolution of the writer. Known mostly for her westerns, B.M.Bower was one of the most prolific writers of the XXth century, with over 60 novels, most critically acclaimed as creator of new paradigms in the world of "westerns". The works included in this gigantic collection are the following: Sky Rider: 1918Cabin Fever: 1918The Thunder Bird: 1919Rim O' the World: 1919Bertha Muzzy Sinclair or Sinclair-Cowan, née Muzzy (November 15, 1871 - July 23, 1940), best known by her pseudonym B. M. Bower, was an American author who wrote novels, fictional short stories, and screenplays about the American Old West. Her works, featuring cowboys and cows of the Flying U Ranch in Montana, reflected "an interest in ranch life, the use of working cowboys as main characters (even in romantic plots), the occasional appearance of eastern types for the sake of contrast, a sense of western geography as simultaneously harsh and grand, and a good deal of factual attention to such matters as cattle branding and bronc busting." She was married three times: to Clayton Bower in 1890, to Bertrand William Sinclair (also a Western author) in 1905, and to Robert Elsworth Cowan in 1921. However, she chose to publish under the name Bower
