Finding Harmony is the third book in the Katie-Annalise trilogy. The first two books were great reads, and this one lives up to the standards set by its predecessors. In this book, Katie and her husband find a corpse at the gate of their home in the Carribean Islands, the result of an apparent suicide. They begin to investigate and bad things happen.

Finding Harmony was very satisfying. It answered all the questions about who Annalise really is. Notice I said is, not was. The character is so well developed you believe she is real. I'm looking forward to the next book and I highly recommend all three books, Saving Grace, Leaving Annalise, and Finding Harmony.
