The journal includes publications of the results of theoretical and applied researches of scientists, who are representatives of educational institutions and research institutes from different countries, as well as representatives of international organizations and stakeholders, who are specialists in abovementioned spheres.

Glencoe Marketing Series: Fashion Marketing focuses on fashion marketing, management, and merchandising. Developed to meet state standards and objectives, the Glencoe Marketing Series books have been developed for secondary students taking Marketing II courses. Designed as stand-alone, semester-length texts, books in the Glencoe Marketing Series also function as supplemental texts for Marketing I courses that may use Glencoe Marketing Essentials.

Includes: vocabulary review, DECA prep, facts and ideas review, marketing applications and computer applications

This concise new text covers all the traditional topics of the course, and also contemporary subjects such as data warehousing, Web site management, and CRM - all areas of work that students will encounter in their future marketing careers. Unique to this text is its customer orientation, reflected in its content, but also in the way that the authors organize the material through the sequence of customer acquisition, interactions, and retention. Each chapter includes topical mini-cases such as the launch of the iPhone, e-Harmony.com, and Southwest Airlines. In addition, there are eight full cases in the back of the book, together with a helpful student guide to analyzing a case.

A marketing first approach to exploring the inter-relatedness of the key components that impact any international marketing venture – markets, the 4Ps, culture, language, political, legal and economic systems, and infrastructure - to support an understanding of the synergies between international marketing and international business. The book covers the incorporation of sustainability and bottom-of-the-pyramid markets within each chapter, along with 'International Incident' boxes encouraging the reader to engage with the ethical and cultural dimensions of international marketing and decision-making. It is also supported by vivid, real-world case studies from a varied cross section of international companies such as Alibaba.com, Best Buy, Facebook, DHL, Kikkoman, Tesco, McDonalds, Nintendo, KitKat in Japan, Mobile Communications in Africa, India's ArcelorMittal Steel, Wind Turbines in Finland, Uniqlo, and Banana Republic. New to this edition: A more global focus through examples, case studies and the experience brought by new co-author Barbara Czarnecka Chapter on "Culture and Cross-Cultural Marketing", featuring political unrest, the Syrian refugee crisis, the recent return to nationalism (e.g. Brexit and the Trump presidency) and further coverage of developing countries. Chapter feature, "Practitioner Insight", which provides applied insights from industry insiders. Coverage of digital advances and social media. Updated theory and methods, including S-DL, CCT, and Netnography. Additional videos supplementing the comprehensive online resource package for students and lecturers. A wealth of online resources complement this book. These include a test bank of 50-65 questions per chapter, PowerPoint slides, sample syllabi, interactive maps, country fact sheets, flashcards, SAGE journal articles, and guidelines for developing a marketing plan. Suitable reading for students of international or global marketing modules on Marketing, International Business and Management degrees.
