novel is real, and how much is made up? That's a complicated question.

Adam Gidwitz

Near the end of the novel, in one of my favorite scenes, the children find themselves in a tavern. A troubadour approaches them. And, thanks to my wife and her crazy taste in concerts — and also to Benjamin Bagby and Sequentia — they hear a troubadour sing “The Song of Hildebrand.” Once the book was finished, we began work on the audiobook.
