Callie works for the TNA, catching bad guys, running freight, and pretty much anything she can do to earn some lix (money) throughout the galaxy.

The Wrong Stars (Axiom, #1) by Tim Pratt - Goodreads

The Wrong Stars by Tim Pratt. If you're looking for a science fiction story that's entertaining, if not particularly new, then this may be one to pick up. It feels like Kristine Katharine Rusch's Diving series in style and tone, with a touch of Alastair Reynolds' Revenger or Chris Wooding's Retribution Falls.

Monday night's Dancing With the Stars ended bizarrely as Tyra Banks read the wrong names during the elimination. At first, Cheer star Monica Aldama and her pro dance partner Valentin Chmerkovskiy thought they were safe and moving on to Week 4. But when Banks was about to name the bottom two vote-getters, she realized there was a mess-up, and Aldama was one of the two dancers to get the least amount of votes.

Dancing With the Stars host Tyra Banks has revealed the goof that led to the wrong couples being announced as the bottom two during Monday night's live episode. When reading the names of the teams in jeopardy, Banks first read Monica Aldama and Val Chmerkovskiy — who she had previously announced as safe. Aldama and Chmerkovskiy were announced as the bottom two next to Anne Heche and Keo Motsepe, who ended up being eliminated after the judges chose to save Aldama.
